

Denmark

- Take a canal tour of Copenhagen, Denmark, a city that is rich in classical architecture, canals lined with boats, bicycle-enthusiasts, and even houses a royal family.
- See the Changing of the Guard at Amalienborg, the winter home of the Danish royal family, located in Copenhagen, Denmark. It consists of four identical classicizing palace façades with rococo interiors around an octagonal courtyard.

Copenhagen Image is by James Z. Flickr

- Go to the Church of Our Saviour (Vor Frelzers Kirke), a baroque church in Copenhagen, most famous for its corkscrew spire with an external winding staircase that can be climbed to the top, offering extensive views over central Copenhagen.
- Go to the Ice Bar in Copenhagen. Everything--including the bar, tables, chairs, and glasses--is made of ice.
- Visit Christiana, a semi-autonomous hippie community in Copenhagen (an example of alternative living).
- Go to Tivoli Gardens, a famous amusement park and pleasure garden in Copenhagen, Denmark (it's the second oldest amusement park in the world).
- Visit Egeskov Castle, located in the south of the island of Funen (the third largest island in Denmark). It's Europe's best preserved Renaissance water castle.
- Go to Hans Christian Andersen's house/museum in Odense, Denmark (Odense is the main city on the island of Funen).

Egeskov Castle - Funen, Denmark by Malene Thyssen

- Have an open sandwich (Smorrebrod) in Denmark. This traditional lunch consists of a piece of buttered rye bread with different toppings, including cheese, smoked fish, sliced tomatoes, and so on.

Norway

- Explore the Fjords of Norway (a fjord is a long, narrow inlet with steep sides or cliffs, created in a valley carved by glacial activity).